

Storytelling Town of Hammonton

Historic Hammonton

Hammonton is a historic site because of how Ronald Regan visited and presidents don't just come to every town so this was a big thing for Hammonton and it really put the town on the map.

Ronald Regan Monument

Downtown Hammonton

From the bagel shop to the restaurants, downtown has a ton to offer. You can basically find everything you would need on Bellevue Ave like pizza places, banks and other major restaurants. The big name restaurants are ones like Rocco's Townhouse and West End. Those two restaurants are a huge part of Hammonton because it draws people into wanting to come back just to eat there.

West End

Rocco's Town House

Train Tracks

I feel that the train tracks are a huge symbol for Hammonton because it allows people from all over to come in and see the town.

Education

Hammonton's biggest advantage over any other town is its education that it offers. The two main high schools are St. Joes and Hammonton High School. Both are amazing schools and both have great teachers.

Faith

In the aspects of faith Hammonton offers St. Joseph's church which is a very nice

